Dear Judge Farnan:

In reviewing Defendant's opening (D.I.60) and reply brief (D.I.74) in preparation for tomorrow's argument, we discovered a citation error that appeared in both our opening and reply briefs. We apologize for the error and are correcting it to eliminate any confusion.

Specifically, on page 14 of the opening brief we refer to "Paragraph 2.2 of the Intellectual Property Agreement." The cited text is actually Paragraph 2.2 of the Patent License Agreement, defined on page 5 of the brief. The parenthetical reference following the cited text, "(Ex. D (PLA) at I00705)," accurately refers to the correct page of the Patent License Agreement. The same mistake was repeated on page 11 of the reply brief. We refer to "Paragraph 2.2 of the Intellectual Property Agreement," but the cited text is actually Paragraph 2.2 of the Patent License Agreement. Again, the parenthetical reference following the cited text, "(Ex. D (PLA) at I00705)," accurately refers to the correct page of the Patent License Agreement.

Pursuant to instructions from Chambers, we are attaching a replacement copy of defendant's opening and reply briefs to correct this error. We will also re-file the redacted copy of Defendant's opening brief (D.I. 70) to also reflect this correction.

Respectfully,

Kyle Wagner Compton
